BENEFITS OF ASSOCIATE MEMBERSHIP

Restaurant & catering WA is the peak body for the food service industry. This Association is made up of food service businesses and industry suppliers and exists solely for the purpose of protecting and serving the interests of the industry and the viability and profitability of those enterprises operating within the industry. The Association provides many services and benefits to its Associate members. The following are some of the reasons why you should belong to the Association.

ADMINISTRATIVE OFFICE – With professional qualified staff to provide advice and service to members.

PUBLICATIONS – Regular supply of industry trade and personal news in Association newsletter, members only intranet, Restaurant and Catering Australia monthly magazine and RCIA Bulletins. Associate members have the material in mailouts, and have any exclusive member deals reported on the Association website and in the newsletter.

SOCIAL PROGRAM – Opportunity to participate in the Association's program of social activities and events, which serve as a networking tool.

AWARDS FOR EXCELLENCE – The Association runs the Awards for Excellence each year and Associate members are given the first opportunities for sponsorship which provides a showcase for their business eg product supply, award sponsorship including name and logo recognition on awards and event publications and marketing material.

INDUSTRY REPRESENTATION – Restaurant & Catering acts as the voice of the food service industry on all matters important to business operators in its dealings with governments, media, unions, other business sectors, non-government entities and consumers. Being a member of the Association means having your voice heard in this process. By working together, a strong voice can turn the tide and the more members we have, the stronger our voice is.
